“ Dear Lorraine,
Both Hugh and you were our long-time neighbours when we lived in Irvington. You saw a our kids born and grow up.
We could not have asked for better neighbours.
You welcomed us so warmly and you and Hugh were always interested if we and our kids were O.K.
I always loved talking with Hugh. He was so knowledgeable and smart and was always happy to discuss what was happening in my homeland, providing interesting insight.
Lorraine, you took such great care of him, making sure that Hugh has all he needs and more, all the while, tending to your beautiful garden.
Hugh will always be in our memory.

“ We met Hugh and Lorraine at the boat club. Had some really fun dinners. Hugh would regale us with stories. Hugh and Lorraine almost never missed any of the club functions, except for lately.

It's a great loss. Our sincere condolences and love to Lorraine

“ Hugh and I were friends for 35 years, first as competitors then working together. We played golf in Phoenix, Palm Springs, Florida and Mexico. All our times together were filled with laughter and fun. I'll always remember a hilarious dinner at St. Elmo's Steak House in Indianapolis, one of Hugh's favorite restaurants. We were having dinner and noticed a competitor dining by himself, Hugh immediately invited him to join us. We all had a few cocktails, a fabulous meal and Hugh's favorite after dinner drink Romana Sambuca with three coffee beans. We finished dinner, Hugh stood up and thanked our friendly competitor for joining us. As we walked outside the restaurant I realized we stiffed our competitor with the tab. We laughed about that for years! I will greatly miss his laughter and stories!

Lots of love to Lorraine for taking such great care of Hugh these past few years.

“ Dearest Lorraine, we are sending you love always. We remember the many endearing times when Hugh would sit in your beautiful garden while you tended it. What a match made in heaven, enjoying nature, loving flowers, relishing each other's company. I can't think of better neighbors. We love you and offering comfort in any way you may need it.
