

Kevin Slavin

March 30, 2021

Kevin Slavin of Elmsford, NY passed away unexpectedly in his home on March 30, 2021. Kevin was born on December 20, 1952 in Yonkers, NY the son of William J. Slavin, Jr and Nancy O'Neill Slavin. He grew up in Irvington, NY attending Immaculate Conception Grammar School and Irvington High School. He worked for Irvington Builders Supply after graduating High School and soon started his own contracting business currently known as Slavin Contracting Group.

Kevin was very social and loved being out with friends and family. He loved to sing and perform and was never without his guitar. He was well known for his sense of humor and his love of practical jokes and magic tricks, as well as being a sports fan. He loved watching the NY Yankees and NY Knicks.

He will be deeply missed by his son Kevin Slavin, (Ly) Jr and his son-in-law, Anthony Ly (Slavin) and grandson Sebastian of Whidbey Island, WA, as well as his daughter Kathy Slavin , son-in-law Josh Rothstein and his granddaughter Sarah of Croton, NY. He is also survived by his sisters Ellen Slavin and her significant other Diane Levi of Stamford, CT, Nancy Slavin (Damiano) and her husband Mark Damiano and nieces and nephews Elizabeth, Jennifer and Patrick of White Plains, NY and nephew Jimmy Mulkern and his wife Gabriela Mulkern of Dobbs Ferry, NY. He is pre-deceased by his older brother William J. Slavin III.

If you wish to send flowers, Johnston's Flowers in Dobbs Ferry, NY is available and local.
